Introduction

- WLT recognises the valuable contribution that a wide range of activities, including clubs, trips, and residential experiences, can make towards pupils' personal and social education.
- WLT aims to promote and provide activities both as part of a broad and balanced curriculum for the pupils of the Academy and as additional optional activities.
- While wishing to promote and provide as broad a range of such activities as possible for the benefit of all pupils, WLT reserves the right to make a charge for certain activities organised by the Schools from time to time.

Scope

- This policy applies to Schools and should be also be read by parents/carers.

Legislation and regulation

- The legislative and regulatory basis for charging and remissions is contained within: •
 - Sections 449 – 462 of the Education Act 1996. 1
 - The Charges for Music Tuition (England) Regulations 2007 • s27(1)
 - The Education Act 1996

Charging

Our Schools reserves the right to make a charge in the following circumstances for activities organised by the academy:

- Academy trips and residential in academy time: the board and lodging element of the residential experience and outdoor pursuit courses
- Activities outside academy hours: the full cost for each pupil for journeys, trips and overnight stays in the United Kingdom and abroad which take place at weekends and during holidays, which are deemed to be optional extras;
- Materials: the cost of materials or ingredients for subjects where parents have indicated in advance that they wish to own the final product;
- Acts of vandalism and negligence: our Schools reserves the right to recover part, or the whole cost, of damage to buildings or equipment which is the result of vandalism or negligence by a pupil/student;
- Use of community facilities.

Optional Extras

Our Schools may charge parents for the following optional extras:

- Education provided outside of academy time that is not:
 - Part of the national curriculum.
 - Part of a syllabus for a prescribed public examination that the pupil is being prepared for at the academy.
 - Religious education.
- Examination entry fees where the pupil has not been prepared for the examinations at the academy
- Transport, other than that arranged by the LA for the pupil to be provided with education
- Board and lodging for a pupil on a residential visit
- Extended day services offered to pupils

When calculating the cost of optional extras, the academy will only take into account the following:

- Materials, books, instruments or equipment provided in relation to the optional extra
- The cost of buildings and accommodation
- The employment of non-teaching staff
- The cost of teaching staff (including teaching assistants) under contracts for services purely to provide an optional extra
- The cost, or an appropriate proportion of the costs, for teaching staff employed to provide vocal tuition or tuition in playing a musical instrument
- Participation in any optional activity will be on the basis of parental choice and a willingness to meet the charges. Therefore, parental agreement is a prerequisite for the provision of an optional extra.

Remissions

- Our Schools may remit charges in full or in part to other parents after considering specific hardship cases. The academy invites parents to apply, in the strictest confidence, for the remission of charges in part or in full. The Head teacher will authorise remission.
- Charges for board and lodging are automatically remitted where the parents meet certain criteria. Since April 2003 the eligibility criteria that entitle families to an exemption from paying for the cost of board and lodging on residential visits have been aligned with free school meals eligibility criteria. This exemption will be reiterated in any correspondence regarding a residential trip.

Voluntary Contributions

- Nothing in this policy statement precludes our Schools from inviting parents to make voluntary contributions. Our Schools should make clear that such contributions are voluntary, that children of parents who do not contribute will not be discriminated against, and that if insufficient contributions are received the trip or activity may be cancelled.
